

Anne Wright is celebrating an anniversary of sorts. This is her 30th year of teaching. Don't you think she looks way too young?

Her teaching career has taken her to many and varied places-San Francisco, Seattle, Portland, Seattle, Polson, and Missoula. Anne started her career teaching at St. Anthony when there were two Catholic schools in Missoula.

After teaching in Polson for 16 years, Anne was excited to come back to Missoula Catholic Schools when there was an opening in kindergarten. Her favorite part of teaching is the children but second has to be teaching religion and playing her guitar and singing with her classes.

Anne also has an endorsement in Library Science and hopes to be able to use that at some point.

She was honored to be nominated by kindergarten parents and received the Gold Star Award for excellence in teaching two years ago as awarded by the local NBC affiliate, KECI.
