

Rebecca Spinder

Biography

Rebecca was born and raised in a suburb of Columbus, Ohio. After graduation, Rebecca headed west to the University of Montana. At the University, she received her degree in Elementary Education and student taught sixth grade at CS Porter. Rebecca also met her husband, Travis, while attending the University.

Upon graduation, Rebecca moved with Travis to Dallas, TX. She taught fifth grade for three and a half years before Travis was offered a job with the State of Montana Crime Lab. They headed back to Montana where they have made their home ever since.

Rebecca has two girls who are currently enrolled at St. Joseph Elementary. Ella is in third grade and Elise is in first grade. Rebecca did not return to teaching after leaving Texas because she wanted to stay home with her girls until they were both in school full time.

In the spring of 2011, Rebecca came to St. Joseph to teach second grade in the Learning Resource Center. She is now teaching full time in the LRC and loving being back in the classroom.

Rebecca enjoys reading, travelling, and being with her family.
