

Biographical Sketch

Dr. Molly Blakely, a graduate of St. Anthony's grade school and Loyola Sacred Heart High School, has accepted the position of curriculum coordinator for Missoula Catholic Schools. Molly received a dual degree in Secondary Education and Special Education from the University of Oregon. She taught for seven years in New York City and received a Master's degree from Columbia University in Special Education and Early Childhood Education. Her Doctorate degree was earned from California University: Santa Ana in Curriculum and Instruction. Her work in curriculum was enhanced by her work at the University of Washington as a grant coordinator and in addition she was a lead consultant for Project Follow Through, working with schools in Mississippi, Guam, Michigan and Georgia. In 1999, Molly received national recognition by being presented with the Excellence in Education award for outstanding educational service. Molly is the founder and president of Educational Resources, Inc. (ERI). ERI is a professional development company that provides training and coaching to teachers across the United States.

Molly is married to Van Blakely and they have two daughters, Emma and Sally. Emma is a fifth grader and Sally is a first grader at SJS.